

Dear Classics Teacher,

The Classical Association Teaching Board would like to collate feedback from teachers on the new Latin and Greek qualifications at GCSE and A Level. I am sure you would agree that it is vital that OCR and WJEC are made aware of what they got 'right' and what they got 'wrong' in the new exams.

Once collated, your feedback would be shared directly with representatives from the relevant exam boards in our October meeting.

Please feel free to comment on as many different papers or exams using the form below and email them to me at aboyt@norwich-school.org.uk.

Best wishes

Alexandra Boyt

New Exam Feedback Pro-Forma

GCSE and A Level Latin and Greek

Exam (please include details of exam board and papers)

Date: 2018 series

Feedback led by:

1. Were there any errors in the exam paper?
2. Was the layout and appearance of the paper consistent with what you had been led to expect from the specimen assessment materials?
3. Were the questions in the style and format which you had been led to expect from the specimen assessment materials?
4. Comments upon the level of difficulty of the questions: was it what you expected and consistent with the information provided by the exam board in specimen papers?
5. Comments on internal parity e.g. if there were two choices of set text, were the questions for both of equal difficulty?
6. Comments upon the marking of the scripts e.g. if scripts were received back, was the marking deemed to be fair and transparent? Was it consistent with information provided by the exam board via specimen assessment papers and candidate responses?
