

The Classical Association - the first century 1903-2003

Edited by Christopher Stray

c.300pp, ISBN: 0198528744

This centenary history, published as a supplementary volume to Greece & Rome, provides both a narrative history of the CA in the 20th century and a series of studies of different aspects of its work. Detailed accounts of the foundation and early years, the abolition of compulsory Latin and its consequences, and the last thirty years, are followed by studies of different aspects of the Association's activities: branches, conferences, journals, and the presidential addresses (three of which are reprinted). A centenary account of the Classical Association of Scotland (founded in 1902) is also included. Several appendices provide factual information on the presidents and other officers, and on the Association's archives. It is available to CA members for £8.95 (£9.95 for non-members), including postage and packing. If you would like to order a copy please use the form below.
