

Article Submission

Articles should be sent to the Classical Quarterly Administrator: classicalquarterly@classicalassociation.org.

Notes to Contributors

1. You should submit your article or shorter note attached as a Word file. Please ensure that your submission is anonymized and append a word count - inclusive of notes. Your submission will be acknowledged, but please do not expect an instant reply because the Administrator works only part time. If you are likely to have difficulty in submitting electronically, please contact the Administrator at the email address above or at the Classical Association, Senate House, Malet Street, London WC1E 7HU, UK. Articles which are currently under consideration with other journals should not be sent to Classical Quarterly.

2. The process of consultation of referee(s) is of unpredictable length, but is likely to take at least four months: please be patient and do not enquire about the progress of your article until after that time has elapsed. If revisions are requested, you should send a revised version to the Editor and the Administrator. If publication is offered without substantial revision, you will be asked to supply two electronic files (one Word and one PDF) to the CQ Copy Editor, and also a PDF to the Administrator. You will also be asked to complete a copyright form. Please note that the Editors' decision is final and that we can on no account enter into any correspondence once a submission has been declined.

3. Articles and shorter notes should be in 12 pt, preferably in Times New Roman, double-spaced on A4 or US letter-size paper, with justified margins and on one side of the paper only. Footnotes should be numbered consecutively, and should be set either as footnotes or endnotes; they also should be in 12 pt, Times New Roman, double-spaced and justified. Greek should be in a Unicode font and also in 12 pt. Transliterated Greek should only be used for words and phrases that are well established in English. Greek names and places should be Latinized as in *OCD*³: Socrates, Cyzicus.

4. Titles of articles submitted should be capitalized, with titles of works italicized: GRILLIUS ON CICERO'S DE INVENTIONE. The titles of sections within the article should also be capitalized; sub-headings within sections should be italicized.

5. Quotations should be put in single inverted commas. A quotation within a quoted passage has double inverted commas. Short passages of Latin and other self-contained phrases (such as coup de grâce or fait accompli) should be italicized.

6. B.C. (or B.C.E.) should appear after the numeral, A.D. (or C.E.) before it. Dates involving a change of century (A.D. 637–732) and all B.C. dates (231–224 B.C.) should be written in full. Write 'nineteenth century' rather than '19th Century'.

7. Use the least number of numerals possible (42–5, 1961–75) except in the case of the numbers 10–19, which should be given in full (16–19). Give the full extent of an article or passage, not 'and ff.'

8. The following should not be italicized: loc. cit., cf., ibid., s.v.

9. The abbreviations e.g. and i.e. may be used in footnotes but should be expanded in the text to 'for example' and 'that is'.

10. Brief text-references should normally be given in the main text, but lists of references and bibliographical details in the footnotes (and not listed at the end), in the following form:

BOOKS

L.D. Reynolds and N.G. Wilson, Scribes and Scholars: A Guide to the Transmission of Greek and Latin Literature (Oxford, 1991³), 199–202.

E. Norden, *Die antike Kunstprosa*⁶ 1.164–81. (Volume numbers in arabic.) Fraenkel on Agamemnon 1314 (pp. 611–13).

Authors' initials should be stated, at least at their first mention. Abbreviations may be assigned to books that will be generally familiar (e.g. *OCD*³, LSJ, CHCL, FGvH, IG, RE omitting full points). 'Op. cit.' should be avoided; instead write (e.g.) 'Vlastos (n. 9), 245–6' or '... (n. 9), at 249'; works repeatedly cited (only) may be listed at the beginning or end of the article, and names (with dates or short titles, if necessary) used in the notes.

CHAPTERS

D.M. Balme, 'Teleology and necessity', in A. Gotthelf and J.G. Lennox (edd.), Philosophical Issues in Aristotle's Biology (Cambridge, 1987), 275–85, at 279.

T.C.W. Stinton, '“Si credere dignum est”: some expressions of disbelief in Euripides and others', in id., Collected Papers on Greek Tragedy (Oxford, 1985), 236–64.

ARTICLES

R.P. Winnington-Ingram, 'The Danaid trilogy', JHS 81 (1961), 141–52, at 143. Both year and volume number (in Arabic numerals) should be given. Abbreviations may follow the style of Marouzeau's L'Année philologique.

DISSERTATIONS

Published dissertations should follow the style for books; those unpublished should follow the style for articles: W. Closterman, 'The self-presentation of the family: the function of classical Attic peribolos tombs' (Diss., Johns Hopkins University, 1999).

ANCIENT AUTHORITIES

Authors' names and titles should be given in full in the main text but should be abbreviated in the footnotes; abbreviations may follow the style of OCD: Aristophanes, Birds 135; Homer, Od. 1.1 (not 1) Arist. Pol. 1333b3–23; Cic. Phil. 2.20 (not 2.8 or 2.8.20); Lucr. 1.47, Pl. Chrm. 167e4–5; Plin. HN 9.176 (not 9.83.176 or 9.83); Plut. De glor. Ath. 347F–348A; Quint. Inst. 10.1.46; Soph. OC 225 (do not use l. or ll., but, where necessary, line or lines).

11. Copyright and permissions. Submissions will be expected to contain original work and should not have been published in abridged or other form elsewhere. It is a condition of publication in the Journal that authors grant an exclusive licence to The Classical Association. Any requests from third parties to reproduce articles are handled on behalf of The Classical Association by Cambridge University Press. This will also allow the article to be as widely disseminated as possible and will protect the rights of the author and the Press. In granting an exclusive licence, authors may use their own material in other publications provided that The Classical Association is acknowledged as the original authority for publication, and Cambridge University Press is notified in writing and in advance. N.B. Authors are responsible for obtaining permission from the relevant authorities for the reproduction of any illustration or an extract, for both print and online formats. Authors are responsible for any reproduction costs or permission fees incurred. Authors must ensure that all permission enquiries and copyright forms are completed before sending a submission to the Journal.

The following is provided as a guide. If there is any doubt, please contact the Editors for advice. For a copyright prose work, it is recommended that permission is obtained for the use of extracts longer than 400 words; a series of extracts totalling more than 800 words, of which any one extract is more than 300 words; or an extract or series of extracts comprising one-quarter of the work or more. For poetry: an extract of more than 40 lines; series of extracts totalling more than 40 lines; an extract comprising one-quarter or more of a complete poem.
