

2010 Membership Form

The Classical Association has a worldwide membership and is open to all who value the study of the languages, literature, and civilisations of ancient Greece and Rome. It creates opportunities for friendly exchange among classicists, encourages scholarship through its journals, and supports classics in schools and universities.

Membership benefits:

- CA News: members receive the Association's lively magazine of news, views and events in June and December each year.
- Presidential Address: members receive the annual Presidential Address printed in booklet form.
- Journals: members can subscribe to the Association's journals at substantially reduced prices.
- Annual Conference: the highlight of the Association's year held over four days in April at a UK university which members are entitled to attend.
- Tape archive: members can hire tapes of Presidential Addresses, lectures and classical readings and other material.
- Book discounts: members of the Association can buy books at a discount of 20% from some of the UK's leading academic publishers.

Subscription rates: Classical Association subscriptions are maintained at a low level to encourage the widest possible membership.

- Full member: £17.00/$34.00
- Student member: £8.50/$17.00 (student membership is open to students at school or at any institution of higher education for their first year of membership only).
- Life Member: £125/$250.00 (open to anyone aged 65 years or over).

Members paying for full or student membership and who opt to pay by Direct Debit receive a £2 discount on the rates given above (NB you need a UK bank account to pay by Direct Debit). New members receive complimentary issues of our publications, including copies of CA News and the Presidential Address, upon joining. Membership fees are annual and are payable each January, except for life members.

Journals

Members can subscribe to any of the Association's journals at greatly reduced rates and further reductions are available for subscriptions to more than one title (these rates are for individual members only, not institutions).

Greece & Rome, Vol 57, 2010 Members: £32/$64 (non-members: £93) Two issues a year, in April and October, plus one issue of the New Surveys in the Classics supplement. Greece & Rome is the most suitable journal for undergraduates and for those with a general interest in the ancient world who wish to be kept informed of what scholars are currently thinking.

Classical Review, Vol 60, 2010 Members: £39/$78 (non-members: £119) Two issues a year. Classical Review is devoted to reviews by leading scholars of as wide a range as possible of classical books. Everyone who wishes to keep in touch with what is going on in classical scholarship needs to have access to it.

Classical Quarterly, Vol 60, 2010 Members: £37/$74 (non members: £111) Two issues a year. Classical Quarterly is one of the principal scholarly journals in the field of classics, and is indispensable for the serious scholar.
